

America Recycles Day

11.15.11

CITY OF JACKSONVILLE, KEEP JACKSONVILLE BEAUTIFUL
AND SOUTHLAND RECYCLING SERVICES CELEBRATE SECOND ANNUAL “AMERICA RECYCLES DAY”

The City of Jacksonville, Keep Jacksonville Beautiful and Republic Services/Southland Recycling will celebrate the second, annual, America Recycles Day in Jacksonville with a communitywide recycling collection event

WHEN: 11 a.m. - 6 p.m.
Tuesday, Nov. 15

WHERE: Prime Osborn Convention Center, 1000 Water St. – 32202
Parking: directional signage will be posted. Residents may either pull through the loop to drop off materials or they may park in the main parking area, on the west side of the building along Bay Street, and carry materials to the drop off area.

WHAT: To encourage more residents to recycle and raise the awareness of the importance of recycling, the City of Jacksonville, KJB, the local affiliate of Keep America Beautiful, and Southland Recycling Services are partnering to hold a communitywide recycling event. Southland Recycling Services will have equipment on site to collect recyclables for processing and to shred paper documents.

All materials listed below will be collected at America Recycles Day. Residents are asked to recycle and keep these items from going to the landfill. Many of these items are valuable resources to others,

*Bank of America volunteers are contributing to this event by collecting shoes and donating their time.
